

Fall greetings!

Many of you have already picked up the new Directory/Handbook. Last year I saw an exhibit of Donna Lovely's stunning nature photography and asked her if we might be able to use it in our 2025-2026 directory. She graciously said yes! Now is a good time to note the influx of birds in North Florida. Our area is a significant stopover for migratory birds and her images capture them beautifully. I hope you will mark your calendars for all the fun activities we have planned. Do not miss a single thing!

Happy Thanksgiving to all! — Dolores Lieb
